

The following information should be read in conjunction with the GC-Global Capital Corp. ("GC" or the "Company") Consolidated Interim Condensed Financial Statements for the 3 and 9 months ending September 30, 2014 and 2013 which are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). All figures are expressed in Canadian dollars unless otherwise indicated.

GC is a merchant bank which provides bridge loan services (asset back/collateralized financing), ranging from $300,000 to $3,000,000 to companies across many industries such as oil & gas, mining, real estate, manufacturing, retail, financial services, technology and biotechnology. GC takes a disciplined and systematic approach to investment and is guided by four core principles: Capital Preservation, Shareholder Value, Secure Generation of Income and Risk Management. GC also invests in emerging North American companies across all industries. GC's investments are made through equity financings and GC works with management of operating companies in order to create value for businesses in which GC assumes a position. These services can include additional equity financing, developing mergers and acquisitions, providing operational management support and structuring and negotiating debt and equity placements.

The Company focuses on 3 main long-term, financial measurements:

1. Long-term/profitable investments
2. Maintaining strong capital and liquidity
3. Managing the success of its equity and investment portfolios

GC has 4 business activities or investments:

1. Structuring Deals/Bridge Loans ("Deals")
2. Market Investments ("Investments")
3. Equity stakes in private companies ("Private Companies")
4. Property/Land Investments ("Land")

Overall Performance

The Company continued to provide bridge financing for existing portfolio clients increasing the Company's bridge loans and note receivable balance to $1,923,871 (December 31, 2013 - $1,161,979). The Company's portfolio investments in publicly-traded companies also continues to grow with unrealized gains year to date totaling $2,885,174 compared to a loss of $31,691 for the same period last year. Overall, the Company's net income for the first nine months ended September 30, 2014 was $781,814 compared to a loss of $901,129 for the same period last year. The Company's business has seen significant traction year to date which is expected to continue throughout 2014.

As noted previously, GC's income is generated from 4 different business activities, some active (Deals, Investments and Private Companies) and some passive (Land). Correspondingly, revenues are presented to show the performance of each of these activities. As is common for all businesses, the performance of each of these business activities or investments will affect the Company's statement of financial position and statement of comprehensive income in different ways which include the impact of non-operating activity, or adjusting the values to passive investments. As GC holds a significant portfolio of passive and equity investments, the presentation of the consolidated financial statements is greatly dependent on the valuation of these assets, due to market conditions in 2014 and in 2013 regardless of whether these investments are being held for the long term. Going forward, the Company will be identifying opportunities to help the management teams of its equity investments improve the value of its active and equity investments through discussions on how they can improve their net income and corresponding asset value. As required for passive investments, they are valued according to IFRS requirements and any change in the value of these passive investments is recognized by adjustments to their value on the statement of financial position and corresponding statement of comprehensive income impacts from these non-operating activities. These consolidated financial statements must be read with this perspective as accounting presentation does not always allow the flexibility to present forward looking values for long term equity and property investments. The Company anticipates that the valuation of the equity and property investments will reflect improvements in their respective sector opportunities and market conditions over the coming years.

As per prior press releases, the Company is adjusting its equity investments in Private Companies in conjunction with the changing business cycle. Progress on this front continues in 2014. Business activities and investment valuations reflect significant changes to the economic climate of each market segment. To this end, the following discussion includes additional information for the sole purpose of simplifying year over year comparisons which may not be immediately evident when comparing the financial activities and portfolio investments common to both years.

As at September 30, 2014, GC's net assets (including the $3.05 million dividend payable) were valued at $10.3 million or $0.26 per share compared to $9.5 million or $0.36 per share as at December 31, 2013. The total shares (single voting shares and multi-voting shares) outstanding were 39,113,931 at September 30, 2014 compared to 26,002,931 as at December 31, 2013.

Income from unrealized gains on the Company's publicly traded companies grew a further $1,428,879 for the quarter ending September 30, 2014 compared to an unrealized gain of $133,941 for the same period last year however the current quarter's gain were offset by bad debt expenses and provision for loan losses of $627,456 and $553,878 respectively. Net income per share for the quarter was $0.00 (September 30, 2013 – loss of $0.01).

The Company's portfolio investments amounted to $6.9 million, an increase of 146% as compared to $2.8 million at December 31, 2013. The fair market value of the Company's portfolio investments include bonus shares received from the Company's bridge loan activities as well as investment in growth companies. The Company records the changes in fair market value of its available-for-sale portfolio investments in 'accumulated other comprehensive income on its statement of financial position. The investment property portfolio remained at $0.5 million (December 31, 2013 - $0.5 million). Equity method investments decreased by $0.4 million (TLD and MMC) year to date (December 31, 2013 - $1.7 million).

Regarding the state of the U.S. real estate recovery, the North Carolina market has recovered and the Company has its Somersby property listed for sale. The Company continues to monitor the markets of New Mexico where the other real estate holdings are located. These markets continue to show signs of healing and expect relative improvement in these markets in 2014 and 2015. The combination of the sluggish U.S. real estate market along with the lengthy legal process of the U.S. courts required the company to take conservative measures and write down these assets with the goal of creating an asset base and net asset value per share to now grow from.

In 2013 and 2014 GC continued its strategic decision to refocus its resources and management team to support its refocus on merchant banking. In 2014, two new directors joined the company's board enhancing the board's skills in public reporting and finance. The company's governance has been enhanced with modification to oversight committees. GC continues to focus on operations that are consistent with the Company's investments in Marathon Mortgage Corporation, Fletcher Business Park and Attorneys Title Guarantee Fund, Inc. The Company's TGC Acquisition Corp. joint venture holding, Tanenbaum Landscape & Design Inc., filed for bankruptcy on April 8, 2014. GC is in the process of recovering part of its investment in the joint venture.

The Preferred Shares are expected to yield a cumulative annual dividend equal to 8% of the issue price and the Preferred Shares are also redeemable at a redemption price equal to the issue price. As consideration for being the lead order on the MMC financing, the Company negotiated and entered into a Put/Call arrangement pursuant to which the Company may purchase, or MMC may require the Company to purchase, an additional 1.2 million Preferred Shares and 933,333 Common Shares for an aggregate purchase price of $1,200,093.

The Board of Directors of the Company has approved the distribution by Global Capital to its shareholders of the Class A Preferred Shares and the Class B Preferred Shares and set May 23, 2014 as the record date for the share distribution. This distribution will allow the Company's shareholders of record as of that date to retain all the interest in the assets of GC Marathon.

GC-Global Capital Corp. ("Global Capital" or the "Company") (TSX Venture Exchange "GDE.A") previously announced in an October 23, 2013 press release the intention is to spin-out a wholly-owned subsidiary real estate investment company, GC Marathon Financial Corp. ("GC Marathon") in the form of a return of capital share distribution to Global Capital's shareholders. Although GC Marathon filed a preliminary prospectus dated March 13, 2014 in this regard, GC Marathon and Global Capital have decided not to proceed with a public offering by way of a distribution in kind to its shareholders.

Instead, shareholders of Global Capital will receive two-thirds of a Class A Preferred Share in the capital of the Company (the "Class A Preferred Shares") and one-third of a Class B Preferred Share in the capital of the Company (the "Class B Preferred Shares") for each subordinate voting share or multiple voting shares of the Company held at the close of business on May 23, 2014. The distribution by Global Capital of the 17,335,578 Class A Preferred Shares and 8,667,353 Class B Preferred Shares will not affect the number of outstanding subordinate voting or multiple voting shares of Global Capital.

Global Capital's registered shareholders will receive share certificates representing their Class A Preferred Shares and Class B Preferred Shares by mail shortly after the May 23, 2014 record date. Global Capital's beneficial shareholders should contact their securities dealers regarding receipt of their Class A Preferred Shares and Class B Preferred Shares.

These expenses are expected to remain high in 2014 as the company continues efforts to spin out the Marathon Mortgage Corporation interest and loan recoveries. Rent increased to $27,785 in the first nine months of 2014 compared to $8,267 for the same period in 2013 due to the addition of a new office in downtown Toronto. The success of GC is dependent upon its ability to assess and manage all forms of risk that affect its operations. Like other financial institutions, GC is exposed to many factors that could adversely affect its business, financial conditions or operating results. Developing policies and procedures to identify risk and the implementation of appropriate risk management policies and procedures is the responsibility of senior management and the Board of Directors. The Board directly, or through its committees, reviews and approves these policies and procedures, and monitors their compliance with them through ongoing reporting requirements. A description of the Company’s most prominent risks follows.

Credit Risk

Concentration of credit risk may arise from exposures to a single debtor or to a group of debtors having similar characteristics such that their ability to meet their current obligations is expected to be affected similarly by changes in economic or other conditions. Senior management is committed to several processes to ensure that this risk is appropriately mitigated. These include:

- Obtaining collateral guarantees;
- the investigation of the creditworthiness of all borrowers;
- the engagement of qualified independent consultants such as lawyers and real estate appraisers, dedicated to protecting the Company’s interests;
- the segregation of duties to ensure that qualified staff are satisfied with all due diligence requirements prior to funding; and
- the prompt initiation of recovery procedures on overdue loans.

In addition, the Board of Directors meets on a quarterly basis, to review and assess the risk profile of the loan portfolio. The Board of Directors is required to approve all loans above $500,000. The Board has delegated approval authority for all loans less than $500,000 to senior management. The Company reviews its policies regarding its lending limits on an on-going basis. The amount of the Company’s loans generally does not exceed 75% of the collateral value. The maximum exposure to credit risk is $2,518,871 totaling bridge loans, notes receivable and convertible debentures.

Market Risk

The Company is exposed to certain market risk that the value of, or future cash flows from, the Company’s financial assets will significantly fluctuate due to changes in market prices. The value of the financial assets can be affected by changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and equity and commodity prices. The Company is exposed to market risk in trading its investments, and unfavourable market conditions could result in dispositions of investments at less than favourable prices. Additionally, the Company is required to mark to market its fair value through profit or loss investments at the end of each reporting period. This process could result in significant write-downs of the Company’s investments over one or more reporting periods, particularly during periods of overall market instability, which would have a significant unfavourable effect on the Company's financial position. The Company manages market risk by having a portfolio which is not singularly exposed to any one issuer or class of issuers. The Board monitors changes in the market on an ongoing basis and adjusts the Company's lending practices and policies when necessary to reduce the impact of the above risks.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not have sufficient cash to meet its obligations as they become due. This risk arises from fluctuations in cash flows from making loan advances and receiving loan repayments. The goal of liquidity management is to ensure that adequate cash is available to honour all future loan commitments. As well, effective liquidity management involves determining the timing of such commitments to ensure cash resources are optimally utilized. GC manages its liquidity risk by monitoring loan advances and repayments.

As at September 30, 2014, the Company had $844,935 (2013 – $940,069) in cash and short-term investments and $5,086,273 (2013 - $163,261) in portfolio investments in publicly-traded company investments. Cash amounts with a financial institution on margin are guaranteed personally by the Chairman of the Company. The Company's financial liabilities which include dividends payable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities totaling $3,046,352 are due within one year. The Company does not have any bank indebtedness. In managements' opinion, the Company has sufficient resources to meet its current cash flow requirements.

Management is not aware of any trends or expected fluctuations that would create any liquidity deficiencies. The Company believes that cash flow from continuing operations and existing cash resources will be sufficient to meet the Company's short-term requirements, as well as ongoing operations, and will be able to generate sufficient capital to support the Company's operations in the long-term. However, the Company may procure debt or equity financing from time to time to fund its operations.

Currency Risk

The Company is exposed to certain currency risks that the value of certain financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. At times the Company takes advantage of foreign exchange contracts to manage the risk of currency fluctuations. At the end of the September 30, 2014, the Company did not hold contracts.

Other Risks

Dependence on Key Personnel

GC is dependent upon the personal efforts, performance and commitment of its senior officers and directors, who are responsible for the development of GC's business. Investors will be relying upon the business judgment, expertise and integrity of GC's senior officers and directors. To the extent that the services of any of the senior officers or directors would be unavailable for any reason, a disruption to the operations of GC could result, and other persons would be required to manage and operate GC. The Company's future success will also depend in large part upon its ability to attract and retain highly skilled personnel. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in attracting and retaining such personnel.

Decline in the Value of Real Estate Assets

GC's real estate loans are generally secured by first and second mortgages against real property assets. If the real estate assets against which GC holds security decline in value, then it may not be able to recover all of the outstanding loans plus expenses in the event of a default of a lender. If GC is unable to realize on real estate assets to recover the principal amounts plus amounts on account of accrued interest and expenses in the event of a loan default or defaults, then its financial condition and operating results will be adversely impacted.

Possible Volatility of Stock Price

The market price of the Subordinate Voting Shares could be subject to wide fluctuations in response to factors such as actual or anticipated variations in GC's results of operations, changes in financial estimates by securities analysts, general market conditions and other factors. Market fluctuations, as well as general economic, political and market conditions such as recessions, interest rate changes or international currency fluctuations may adversely affect the market price of the subordinate voting shares.

Competition

GC operates in an increasingly competitive environment. Both large and small competitors compete with GC. Some of these competitors may have longer operating histories, greater name recognition and greater financial and marketing resources than GC. GC believes that its ability to compete effectively is dependent upon the quality of its product and client service. There can be no assurance that GC will be able to compete effectively and retain its existing clients or attract and retain new clients. GC's current and potential competitors may develop and market new products or services that render GC's existing and future products and services less marketable or competitive.

Maintenance of Client Relationships

The ability of GC to attract and maintain clients requires that it provide a competitive offering of products and services that meet the needs and expectations of its clients. GC's ability to satisfy the needs or demands of its clients may be adversely affected by factors such as the inability or failure to identify changing client needs or expectations or the inability to adapt in a timely and cost-effective manner to innovative products and services offered by competitors.

Strategic Relationships

GC anticipates that, from time to time, it will enter into strategic relationships to syndicate certain bridge loans where appropriate, as part of its strategy to diversify and manage risks associated with its bridge loan portfolio. Syndication will afford GC the opportunity to participate in much larger transactions. There can be no assurance that GC will be able to enter into such relationships in the future, and its inability to do so may adversely affect its ability to continue to service its existing and prospective clients.

its proportionate share of an affiliate's net assets as an equity method investment and its proportionate share of an affiliate's net income (loss) as equity method investment income.

Investment in Associated Company

Investments in associated companies over which the Company has significant influence, but does not control, are accounted for using the equity method. Under the equity method, the investment is initially recorded at cost and the carrying value is adjusted thereafter, to reflect the Company's pro-rata share of income or loss of the equity accounted investment and any dividends received from the investment. The Company's share of net income (loss) of such investments is included in the consolidated statements of income as equity method investment income.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the year. Financial statement items subject to significant management judgment include:

- Provision for loan losses – Management exercises judgement to determine whether indicators of loan impairment exist, and if so, management must estimate the timing and amount of future cash flows from loans receivable.
- Valuation of deferred income tax assets – The valuation of deferred income tax assets requires judgement on their recoverability. Such judgements are made based on management's estimate on the timing and amount of the Company's future taxable earnings.
- Impairment of assets (portfolio investments in private companies, held for sale assets and investment properties) – Management exercises judgement to determine whether indicators of impairment exist, and if so, management must estimate the timing and amount of future cash flows from sales.
- Determination of fair value of investment properties disclosed.

While management believes that the estimates and assumptions are reasonable, actual results may differ materially from those estimates.

Provisions

The Company recognizes provisions when a legal or constructive obligation exists as a result of past events, when it is probable that there will be an outflow of economic benefits from the entity, and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made. When a provision is expected to settle beyond the immediate term, the provision is measured at the present value of future cash flows, discounted at prevailing market interest rates. With the passage of time, additional expenses are recorded as the provision accretes.

Loans and Receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. These include accounts receivable, interest and dividends receivable, bridge loans and notes receivable and convertible debenture receivable.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less impairment.

Loans receivable are recorded at amortized cost, net of specific loan loss provisions.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - continuedImpairment of Loans and Provision for Loan Losses

Loans are considered to be impaired when there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that have occurred after the initial recognition of the loan, the estimated future cash flows of the loan have been affected. Objective evidence of impairment of a loan could include: significant financial difficulty of the borrower, breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments; or it becomes probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganization.

Specific Provision for Loan Losses

At a minimum of each reporting period, management assesses whether there are indicators that loan loss provisions are required for each loan in the Company's loan portfolio based on economic and market trends, the impairment status of loans, market value of the asset, and appraisals, if any, of the security underlying loans receivable. If these factors indicate that the carrying value of loans may not be recoverable, or the repayment of contractual amounts due may be delayed, management compares the carrying value of the affected loans with the discounted present value of their estimated future cash flows. To the extent that discounted estimated future cash flows are less than the loan carrying value, a specific loan loss provision is recorded. Any subsequent recognition of interest income on a loan for which a specific loan loss provision exists is calculated at the discount rate used in determining the provision, which may differ from the contracted loan interest rate.

Should the cash flow assumptions used to determine the original loan loss provision change, the loan loss provision may be reversed. A loan loss provision is reversed only to the extent that the revised carrying value of the loan does not exceed its amortized cost that would have been recorded had no loan loss provision been recognized.

Non-recourse Syndication of Loans

At times the Company may enter into syndication agreements whereby investors take part in its bridge loan financings. Loans are recorded in loans receivable on a net presentation basis. Interest earned by investors is netted against interest income.

Investment Properties

The Company currently owns three (3) investment properties which are measured using the cost model. There is no amortization recorded as the investment properties are land. After initial recognition, the properties are recorded at cost less accumulated impairment losses. The carrying values of the properties are reviewed on a regular basis. When the net carrying amount of a property exceeds its net recoverable amount, an impairment loss is charged to income. The fair value of each property at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in note 10. To determine fair value, the properties are compared to current prices in an active market for similar properties in the same location and condition and subject to similar contracts. In the absence of such information, the Company may consider current prices of properties of a different nature or in less active markets with adjustments to reflect changes in economic conditions. If the fair value of the property cannot be reasonably determined using the above criteria, the fair value of the property is assumed to be equal to its cost less accumulated impairment losses.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - continuedRevenue Recognition

Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis using the effective interest rate method. Under the effective interest rate method, the interest rate realized is not necessarily the same as the stated loan interest rate. When a loan is classified as impaired, the original expected timing and amount of future cash flows may be revised to reflect new circumstances. These revised cash flows are discounted using the original effective interest rate to determine the impaired carrying value of the loan. Interest income is thereafter recognized on this impaired carrying value using the effective interest rate. Additional changes to the amount or timing of future cash flows could result in further loan losses, or the reversal of prior loan losses, which would also impact the amount of subsequent interest income recognized. Loan commitment, origination, structuring fees and bonuses are recorded as income over the life of the loan. Interest and fees collected in advance are recorded as deferred revenue and recognized in income as set out above.

Trading revenue and sale of investments are recognized on a settlement basis.

Management and consulting fees are recognized over the period in which the services are provided.

Foreign Currency Translation

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than Canadian dollars are translated into Canadian dollars at the rate of exchange in effect at the statement of financial position date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the historical rates. Revenues and expenses are translated at the transaction exchange rate. Foreign currency gains and losses resulting from translation are reflected in net comprehensive loss of the period.

Income Taxes

Income tax expense comprises current and deferred components.

Current income tax expense is the expected tax payable for the current year's taxable income based on rates enacted or substantively enacted at the period end and any adjustments to previous estimates.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the asset and liability method. Accordingly, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities from a change in expected future tax rates is recognized in net (loss) income in the period that includes the date of substantive enactment of the revised tax rates. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that they will be realized.

Convertible Debenture Receivable

When the Company holds debentures that are convertible into the issuer's equity share at the Company's option, the equity conversion feature represents an embedded option written by the issuer on its equity shares. The embedded derivative is not closely related to the host contract (the debenture) from the Company's perspective. Such conversion feature is classified as fair value through profit or loss, with the debenture being classified as loans and receivables and accounted for at amortized cost.

The embedded derivative's fair value (the conversion feature) is calculated first, and the carrying value of the debenture is assigned the residual amount after deducting from the consideration paid to acquire the hybrid instrument, the amount separately determined for the embedded derivative.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - continuedStock-Based Compensation Plan

The Company grants stock options to employees, officers and directors. The board of directors grant such options with lives up to 10 years, with vesting periods determined at its discretion and at exercise prices equal to or greater than the Company's closing common share price on the date preceding that of the grant date.

The Company determines the fair value of options granted using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The fair value of options granted incorporates an assumption for expected option forfeitures and is determined on the grant date. The fair value of options on each vesting date is recognized as stock-based compensation expense over the vesting period.

Financial Assets

Financial assets must be classified into one of four categories: fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL), held-to-maturity, loans and receivables and available for sale; financial liabilities must be classified into one of two categories: FVTPL and other financial liabilities. All derivative instruments, including those that are embedded in, but not closely related to, another contract must be classified as fair value through profit or loss with changes in their fair value reported in net income for the period. All financial instruments, including derivatives, are measured at fair value except for loans and receivables, held-to-maturity investments and other financial liabilities, which are measured at amortized cost, using the effective interest method where applicable. Subsequent measurement and changes in fair value will depend on their initial classification, as follows: fair value through profit or loss financial assets are measured at fair value and changes in fair value are recognized in net income; available for sale financial assets are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in other comprehensive income until the investment is derecognized or impaired at which time the amounts would be recorded in net income.

Cash, short-term investments and conversion feature of convertible debenture are designated as fair value through profit or loss. Accounts receivable, interest and dividends receivable, letters of credit, bridge loans, notes receivable and debt portion of convertible debentures are designated as loans and receivables which are measured at amortized cost, subject to impairment reviews. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities and margin for investments are designated as other financial liabilities which are measured at amortized cost.

Portfolio investments in publicly traded companies have been designated as either fair value through profit or loss or available for sale and are recorded in the consolidated statements of financial position at fair value. Fair value is determined directly by reference to quoted market prices in active markets. In instances where securities are escrowed or subject to restrictions on sale or transfer, the securities are recorded at amounts discounted from market value to a maximum of 20%. In determining the discount for such investments, the Company considers the nature and length of the restriction.

Included in portfolio investments is the fair value of the Company's investments in share purchase warrants of other corporations which are designated at FVTPL (unless privately held which is measured at cost). Where the value of these warrants is not publicly quoted in active markets, the Company employs the Black-Scholes pricing model to determine fair value, with volatility and risk free rates taken directly from the most recent audited financial statements of the corresponding companies.

Portfolio investments in private companies have been designated as available for sale. If a market for an investment is not active, the Company establishes fair value by using a valuation technique that makes maximum use of market inputs and includes recent arm's length market transactions, reference to the current fair value of another instrument that is substantially the same, discounted cash flow analysis, and option pricing models. If there is no active market for a portfolio investment and the range of reasonable fair values is significant and the probabilities of the various estimates cannot be made reliably, then the Company measures the portfolio investment at cost less impairment.

Financial assets measured at fair value or where fair value is disclosed in the notes must be classified into one of the three hierarchy levels set forth below for disclosure purposes (note 8). Each level is based on the transparency of the inputs used to measure the fair value of assets and liabilities.

- Level 1: Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices of identical instruments in active markets;
- Level 2: Valuation models which utilize predominately observable market inputs; and
- Level 3: Valuation models which utilize predominately non-observable market inputs.

The classification of a financial asset in the hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the measurement of fair value. Additional disclosure relating to the liquidity risk associated with financial assets is included in note 19.

The Company uses the following criteria to determine if there is objective evidence that a permanent impairment has occurred:

- i) The length of time that the investment has been impaired;
- ii) Market price of the investment at the date of the period end assessment;
- iii) Financial condition and near-term prospects of the investee company; and
- iv) The ability of the Company to retain the investment for a period of time sufficient for a recovery in market value.

Earnings (loss) per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share are calculated using the weighted average number of multiple and subordinate voting shares outstanding during the period.

Diluted earnings per share is calculated by dividing net earnings available to shareholders for the period by the diluted weighted average number of multiple and subordinate shares outstanding during the period. The diluted weighted average number of shares includes the potential dilution from shares issuable through stock options, if dilutive. This assumes that the proceeds from any shares issued on the exercise of stock options are used by the Company to repurchase and cancel shares at the average market price of the Company's share price for the period. As such, where the strike price of stock options exceeds the average market price of the Company's shares for the reporting period, the inclusion of these shares under the treasury stock method would be anti-dilutive, so these shares are excluded from the calculation of the weighted average number of diluted shares outstanding.

In years that the Company reports a net loss, loss per share is not presented on a diluted basis, as the result would be anti-dilutive.

Assets held for sale

Property and equipment and related assets are reclassified to assets held for sale when it is expected that their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than continuing use, the property is available for immediate sale, and a sale is highly probable. The Company presents assets classified as held for sale and their associated liabilities separately from other assets and liabilities beginning from the period in which they were first classified as "for sale". Assets held for sale are measured at the lower of carrying value and fair value less costs to sell.

4. New and Revised Standards and Interpretations*(a) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

The following pronouncements issued by the IASB and interpretations published by IFRIC will become effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2014, with earlier adoption permitted. The Company is currently assessing the impact of the adoption of new standards and interpretations.

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments was issued by the IASB in October 2010 and will replace IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. IFRS 9 uses a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortized cost or fair value, replacing the multiple rules in IAS 39. The approach in IFRS 9 is based on how an entity manages its financial instruments in the context of its business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. Most of the requirements in IAS 39 for classification and measurement of financial liabilities were carried forward unchanged to IFRS 9. The new standard also requires a single impairment method to be used, replacing the multiple impairment methods in IAS 39. The effective date is yet to be determined.

IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation was amended by the IASB in December 2011. Offsetting Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities amendment addresses inconsistencies identified in applying some of the offsetting criteria. The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning in or after January 1, 2014. Earlier application is permitted.

IAS 36 Impairment of Assets was amended by the IASB in June 2013. Recoverable Amount Disclosures for Non-Financial Assets amendment modifies certain disclosure requirements about the recoverable amount of impaired assets if that amount is based on fair value less costs of disposal. The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2014. Earlier application is permitted when the entity has already applied IFRS13.

IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement was amended by the IASB in June 2013. Novation of Derivatives and Continuation of Hedge Accounting amendment will allow hedge accounting to continue in a situation where a derivative, which has been designated as a hedging instrument, is novated to effect clearing with a central counterparty as a result of laws or regulation, if specific conditions are met (in this context a novation indicates that parties to a contract agree to replace their original counterparty with a new one). The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

IFRIC Interpretation 21 Levies was issued by IFRIC in May 2013. The interpretation on the accounting for levies imposed by governments clarifies the obligating event that gives rise to a liability to pay a levy. IFRIC 21 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

(b) Pronouncements effective for annual periods beginning on or after July 1, 2014

Annual Improvements 2010-2012 Cycle was issued by IASB in December 2013. The annual improvement process is comprised of minor revisions, clarifications or corrections to the standards. The following standards have been amended: IFRS 2, IFRS 3, IFRS 8, IFRS 13, IAS 16, IAS 24, IAS 38. These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after July 1, 2014. Earlier application is permitted.

The fair values of notes receivable and bridge loans are estimated to be approximately equivalent to carrying value as the market rate of interest approximates the effective interest rate. Shares, real estate, personal and corporate guarantees generally have been pledged as security for the notes receivable and bridge loans.

- i) On November 16, 2012 an agreement was reached to recover $119,240 of a $250,000 loan previously written down to $nil. In 2014, $4,813 was received (2013 - $6,216) and an allowance against the loan was recorded of $83,394 as at September 30, 2014 (2013 - $24,817).
- ii) Private company syndicated loan with Company's participation of 58%. The loan was past due as at period end. The loan was written down by $150,602 as at September 30, 2014.
- iii) The non-interest bearing bridge loan has no fixed date of maturity. The face value of the receivable is US$500,000. In 2011 a specific provision for loan losses of $263,274 was recorded to reflect the expected present value of payment to be received. The loan was written down by $245,226 as at September 30, 2014.

on December 23, 2013. The private company continued to draw on the credit facility throughout the period. As at September 30, 2014 the balance outstanding is $739,190.

- vi) On January 16, 2014, the Company completed a 24% secured bridge loan for $257,500 with a July 16, 2014 maturity date. The terms of the deal include a 5% equity position in Advantagewon Oil in the form of common shares. The net proceeds of the bridge loan shall be used for the drilling program on Advantagewon Oil's Saratoga oil property in the state of Texas. On June 17, 2014, maturity date of the secured bridge loan was extended to December 16, 2014. On June 10, 2014, the Company completed a 24% secured credit facility in the amount of $1,000,000. The private company was permitted a first advance of $600,000 which was drawn on August 26, 2014. The maturity date is 12 months from the date of the first advance date. The Company at its sole discretion after discussion with the private company the success of its operations may determine whether or not to make a further advance of $400,000. The terms of the deal include a 4.8% equity position in Advantagewon Oil in connection with the first advance; a further 3.2% equity position will be provided at the time of the $400,000 drawdown.

- b) Past due loans and notes receivable that are not impaired.

Loans are considered past due when the loan is outstanding past the scheduled maturity date. This may arise in the normal course of business as a result of various factors including refinancing delays.

There were no past due loans that were not impaired at September 30, 2014.

- c) Loans renewed or renegotiated during the period

In certain instances the Company may choose to renegotiate or renew loans instead of enforcing its security on loans which have not been repaid. Certain loans whose terms have been renegotiated are no longer considered to be past due but are considered to be in good standing and are therefore accounted for as performing loans. If a substantial modification (based on present value of future cash flows test) is made to a loan on renewal, the Company records any difference between the present value of future cash flows arising from the contractual compared to market rate of interest in net income (loss) immediately. When renewing loan terms, the Company may include changes in maturity dates, additional structuring fees and/or bonuses, interest terms and changes in collateral.

No loans were renewed or renegotiated during the quarter ending September 30, 2014.

- d) Impaired loans, write-downs, allowances for loan losses

The Company's impaired loans and specific allowances are as follows:

knowledge of the collateral, credit, financial and real estate markets. In assessing the adequacy of the specific loan loss provision, management takes into account likely realizable values, legal costs and incorporates a time value and credit risk component into estimated future cash flows.

When a loan is classified as impaired, the original expected timing and amount of future cash flows may be revised to reflect new loan circumstances. These revised cash flows are discounted using the original effective interest rate to determine the impaired carrying value of the loan. Interest income is thereafter recognized on this impaired carrying value using the effective interest rate. Additional changes to the amount or timing of future cash flows could result in further loan losses, or the reversal of previous loan losses, which would also impact the amount of subsequent interest income recognized. During the quarter ended September 30, 2014 $Nil (2013 - $Nil) in specific allowances on impaired loans was reversed.

The Company has recorded specific allowances for loan losses as follows:

	September 30, 2014	December 31, 2013

Balance – end of period	$ 2,135,628	$ 1,654,571

19. Risk Management - continuedRisk Management

The success of the Company is dependent upon its ability to assess and manage all forms of risk that affect its operations. Like other financial institutions, the Company is exposed to many factors that could adversely affect its business, financial conditions or operating results. Developing policies and procedures to identify risk and the implementation of appropriate risk management policies and procedures is the responsibility of senior management and the Board of Directors. The Board directly, or through its committees, reviews and approves these policies and procedures, and monitors their compliance with them through ongoing reporting requirements. A description of the Company's most prominent risks follows.

Credit Risk

Concentration of credit risk may arise from exposures to a single debtor or to a group of debtors having similar characteristics such that their ability to meet their current obligations is expected to be affected similarly by changes in economic or other conditions. Senior management is committed to several processes to ensure that this risk is appropriately mitigated. These include:

- obtaining collateral guarantees;
- the investigation of the creditworthiness of all borrowers;
- the engagement of qualified independent consultants such as lawyers and real estate appraisers, dedicated to protecting the Company's interests;
- the segregation of duties to ensure that qualified staff are satisfied with all due diligence requirements prior to funding; and
- the prompt initiation of recovery procedures on overdue loans.

In addition, the Board of Directors meets on a quarterly basis, to review and assess the risk profile of the loan portfolio. The Board of Directors is required to approve all loans above $500,000. The Board has delegated approval authority for all loans less than $500,000 to senior management. The Company reviews its policies regarding its lending limits on an on-going basis. The amount of the Company's loans generally does not exceed 75% of the collateral value. The maximum exposure to credit risk is $2,518,871 (2013 - $3,152,391).

Market Risk

The Company is exposed to certain market risk that the value of, or future cash flows from, the Company's financial assets will significantly fluctuate due to changes in market prices. The value of the financial assets can be affected by changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and equity and commodity prices. The Company is exposed to market risk in trading its investments, and unfavourable market conditions could result in dispositions of investments at less than favourable prices. Additionally, the Company is required to mark to market its fair value through profit or loss investments at the end of each reporting period. This process could result in significant write-downs of the Company's investments over one or more reporting periods, particularly during periods of overall market instability, which would have a significant unfavourable effect on the Company's financial position. The Company manages market risk by having a portfolio which is not singularly exposed to any one issuer or class of issuers. The Board monitors changes in the market on an ongoing basis and adjusts the Company's lending practices and policies when necessary to reduce the impact of the above risks.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not have sufficient cash to meet its obligations as they become due. This risk arises from fluctuations in cash flows from making loan advances and receiving loan repayments. The goal of liquidity management is to ensure that adequate cash is available to honour all future loan commitments. As well, effective liquidity management involves determining the timing of such commitments to ensure cash resources are optimally utilized. The Company manages its liquidity risk by monitoring loan advances and repayments.

As at September 30, 2014, the Company had $844,935 (2013 – $940,069) in cash and short-term investments and $5,086,273 (2013 - $163,261) in portfolio investments in publicly-traded company investments. Cash amounts with a financial institution on margin are guaranteed personally by the Chairman of the Company. The Company's financial liabilities which include dividends payable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities totaling $3,046,352 are due within one year. The Company does not have any bank indebtedness. In managements' opinion, the Company has sufficient resources to meet its current cash flow requirements.

Management is not aware of any trends or expected fluctuations that would create any liquidity deficiencies. The Company believes that cash flow from continuing operations and existing cash resources will be sufficient to meet the Company's short-term requirements, as well as ongoing operations, and will be able to generate sufficient capital to support the Company's operations in the long-term. However, the Company may procure debt or equity financing from time to time to fund its operations.

Currency Risk

The Company is exposed to certain currency risks that the value of certain financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. At times the Company takes advantage of foreign exchange contracts to manage the risk of currency fluctuations. At the end of the September 30, 2014, the Company did not hold contracts.

20. Contingencies

- a) In March 2004, the Company and a director were named in an action under which the plaintiff has claimed $130,000, or in the alternative, the return of shares. The Company and the Director have defended and counterclaimed rescission of the agreement by which the Company agreed to purchase shares from the plaintiff. Affidavits of documents have yet to be exchanged and the plaintiff has taken no steps to move the action forward. Management is of the opinion that this claim is without merit. Accordingly, no provision has been made for this claim in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.
- b) In 1997, the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Global Benefit Plan Consultants Inc. ("GBPC"), had two divisions. The Company sold the assets of one of the divisions ("GBPC Division") to companies controlled by the then current management of that specific division (the "Former Management"). Pursuant to the sale agreement, the Company received an indemnity from Former Management in respect of any reassessments by Revenue Canada for taxes related to the GBPC Division.

During fiscal 2006, Revenue Canada reassessed the tax returns for GBPC for the tax years 1996 and 1997. The reassessment concluded that GBPC reported false travel and promotion expenses for two former members of GBPC's management in the amounts of $206,814 and $19,641 (totaling $226,455). The reassessment further concluded that GBPC made false investment tax credit claims in the amounts of $14,083 and $1,370 attributed to the false travel and promotion expenses. Total taxes payable on the reassessment amounted to $101,409 plus interest and penalties of approximately $215,000. Since 2006 an additional $115,635 in fees, penalties and interest has accrued.

As at December 31, 2011 the Company has paid $432,044 which is the total estimated liability in relation to the contingency. On October 28, 2012, an agreement was reached with GBPC to recover $175,000 of a $226,455 judgment previously written down to $nil which is included in accounts receivable. On August 1, 2013, the final payment of the $175,000 was received.

- c) The Company is the parent company of the general partner of GC-Global Capital Lending Partners Limited Partnership and Somersby Park 2010 General Partner Inc. The General Partner has unlimited liability for the liabilities and obligations of the partnerships in excess of the contributions of the limited partners. As at September 30, 2014 there were no outstanding liabilities or obligations for which the Company was contingently liable.
